THE FLIGHT

*The sobbing airplane engine whines
And chokes; the wind strained struts
Shriek with the devilish swing, break swing,
And drop, — a tailspin cuts
The air, then levels out in flight
Held slow, and yet the sea
Gull in midair seems hanging poised
And still. Below the free
Winged plane the purpled islands lie—
Scrub, bayberry, and pine,
With rocky point and lacy spume.
The deeper waters shine
Beyond, and, there the blending fog
Sweeps, softly spreading out.
Strong winged, the plane banks hard toward home
There is the whistling rout—
The touch of wheels on earth, the bump
And jolt. The greedy world
Of toil absorbs the lives of those Who have been heaven-hurled.*

The PATHFINDERS, an organization of mothers of the students of Deering High and Lincoln Junior High School, has completed its thirteenth year.

The club has had a most successful and enjoyable year under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Edgar Hagen.

Interesting programs have been executed by Mrs. John McDaniel as chairman. For speakers we have had:

MR. WILLIAM JACK	Superintendent of Schools
MR. WILLIAM E. WING	Principal of Deering High School
MR. ROLAND STEVENS	Principal of Lincoln Junior High School
DR. ARTHUR HAUCK	President of the University of Maine
MISS WINETTA M. RUNNELLS	Dean at Colby College
MRS. FRANK F. ROBERTS	President of the Women's Literary Union
DR. ROBERTS TRISTRAM COFFIN	Author, poet and teacher at Bowdoin
PROFESSOR BROOKS QUIMBY	Bates College

In addition we have enjoyed solos given by the students, selections by the Girl's Glee Club, the orchestras of both schools, and the "Korda Trio."

In November the meeting was held at Lincoln Junior High School. The play, "Danse Macabre" was given by the pupils.

In April a "Father's Night" program was attended by four hundred mothers and fathers. Two hundred and fifty pupils of Deering High School and Lincoln Junior High School participated in this varied and musical program.

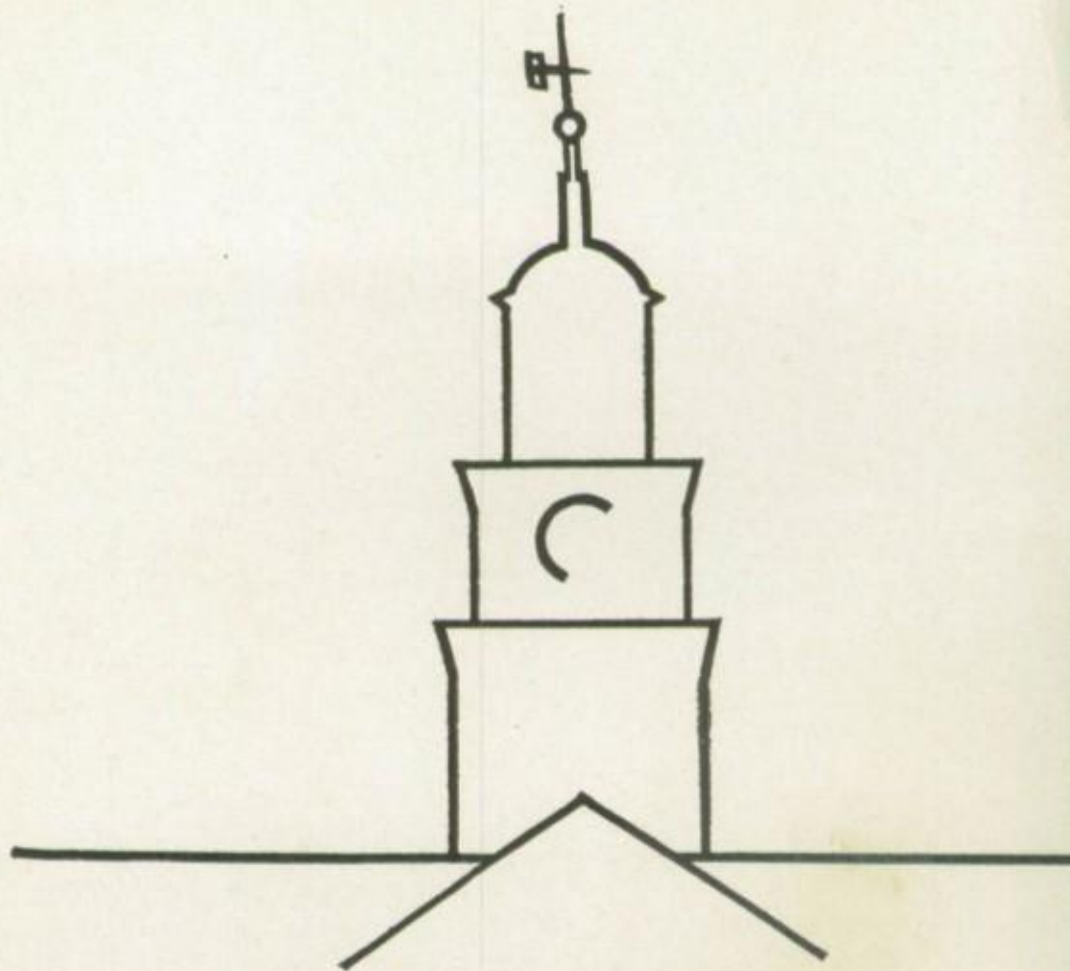

The literature group under the capable guidance of Mrs. William Holt has sponsored excellent and timely book reviews. Each month a book of fiction and non-fiction has been reviewed.

During the year a gift of $40. was given Mr. Roland Stevens toward the purchase of an oak lectern. Twenty-five dollars was given Mr. Wing to help defray expenses of graduation.

This year the club will give three scholarships, two—two hundred dollar scholarships and one—one hundred dollar scholarship.

The club has completed its best year financially and has grown to a membership of 370.

The friendship committee has endeavored to promote friendship between mothers and between the mothers and teachers. A social hour and tea has concluded each program.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

The tenth annual Dramatic Club play found an interested and appreciative audience for its light humor and lively characterization. "How Very English" by Beulah King, is a drawing room comedy of an family from the Bronx suddenly transplanted to an English manor, which promptly develops a ghost. Miss Ellen Siddon, companion of the former owner of the house, and skillfully portrayed by Jacqueline Lucas, proves to be the "haunt."

The character of the ecstatic Mrs. Sara Wren, the ambitious mother, was played by Elaine Crommett. Her "dreams and hopes" that Sylvia, her daughter, played by Marcelle Lucas, would marry their neighbor, Lord Faltonstall, were thwarted by the love-sick lady's longing for John Summerhayes, a New York boy. This part was portrayed by John Marble, who remained, for the most part in hiding beneath the sofa in Wanstead Manor. Harriet Wren, the other daughter, in real life Barbara Norburg, was the vivacious girl who finally won Lord Faltonstall. Richard Bye played the part of this much sought-after lord. Chipchase, the footman, played by Douglas Morrill, brought a very, very English atmosphere into the play. The kid brother was Walter Sullivan, whose flaming red pajamas added a noble touch to the scene.

Following the play there was dancing in the gym. The patrons and patronesses were Principal and Mrs. Wing, Mr. and Mrs. C. William Peterson, Mrs. Charles Marble, Miss Ferne Ross, Miss Marjorie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Andrew, Miss Frances Hueston, Miss Bertha Crocker, and Mr. Theodore Johnson. It will be hard to forget this play, with its hair-raising moments and humorous turns.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

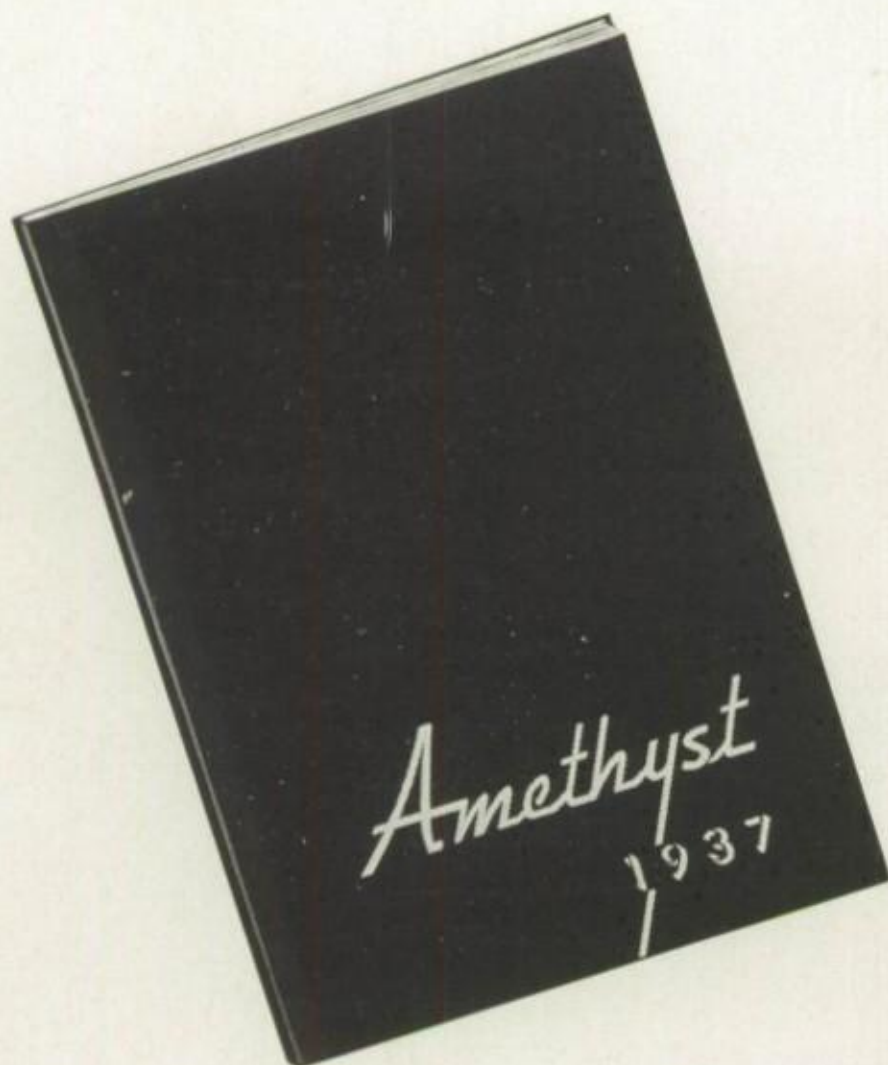

An office of a small mid-western city suddenly found itself on Deering's stage one evening in April. It was the Senior Class Play, "Welcome to Our City," a three-act comedy. The rising curtain disclosed Susie Felton, or Eleanor Parr. She was soon joined by Stanley O'Brien, played by George Lawley, who shadowed her throughout the play. With the arrival of Elmer Watts, Alvah Kitchen, we were introduced to the President of the Civic Club. Elmer first claimed the affections of Mary Holmes, the secretary, played by Jacqueline Lucas.

Miss Holmes proved to be much in demand; when Douglass Morrill appeared as Jay G. Hill, Jr., son of a vacationing millionaire, Elmer didn't have a chance. Carroll Richardson, alias Tommy Kendall, also had his eye on Mary until Conny Hill, Barbara Norburg, arrived. There was no doubt that Tommy found Conny to his liking. Complicating matters by threatening to disclose the identity of the millionaire, comes the newspaper editor, John Hastings, played by Donald Lindsey. Comic moments were added by the entrance of Mrs. O'Brien, the very Irish landlady, played by Virginia Starkey.

The millionaire, Mr. Jay G. Hill, Sr., portrayed by Vaughn Faulkner, in the end made everybody happy by generous gifts to the town, and, incidentally his blessing to his son and daughter for their coming marriage.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Andrew, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner E. Sawyer, Rev. and Mrs. Walter Quarrington, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wing, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Emmons, Mr. and Mrs. Byron L. Mitchell, Miss Gladys L. Tilton, Miss Carol Hoxie, Miss Jane A. Huston, Miss Bernice S. True, and Mr. Theodore Johnson.

SUNBONNET GIRL

This year the combined Glee Clubs under the direction of Mrs. Maude H. Haines staged an operetta. This was a sparkling comedy called "The Sunbonnet Girl." An orphan girl, Sue, is living with cruel guardians, the Scroggses. A patron of music, Mrs. Coleman, comes to town to conduct a music contest. Her son, Bob, is charmed by Sue.

There is also a budding romance between Barbara, Mrs. Coleman's daughter, and Jerry Jackson. Sue, in Barbara's clothes, enters the singing contest against her guardian's wishes and wins a scholarship. Later it is discovered by Ezra McSpavin, the constable, that Sue's real parents have left her a lot in Los Angeles. Sue at last accepts Bob's hand. As the curtain comes down, there are prospects of two happy weddings.

Sue was Virginia Logan; Mr. and Mrs. Scroggs, Reevil Leadbetter and Jean Ryan; Mrs. Coleman, Mary Lou Stuart; Bob Coleman, Peter Welch; Barbara Coleman, Eleanor Parr; Jerry Jackson, Carroll Richardson; Ezra McSpavin, Donald Lindsey.

Other principals were Betty Carlton, Hortense Stickney, Douglas Morrill, Jane Whibley, Walter Sullivan, Ellen Wallace, and Muriel Foster. There was a chorus of over eighty singers. The accompaniment was the Deering High School Ensemble, Frances Smith and Lucia Page at the piano. Speaking parts and stage business were under the direction of Miss Frances Hueston. The colorful costumes, adding much to the stage effects, were made under the direction of Miss Helen Wyman. To Miss Hueston, Mrs. Haines and Miss Wyman goes great credit for the success of "Sunbonnet Girl."

FRESHMAN RECEPTION

On the evening of November thirteenth, the class of 1940 was welcomed to Deering where nearly five hundred people, parents, relatives and friends of the entering class gathered for the occasion in the D. H. S. Auditorium. Guests were greeted by Philip Miller, the president of the Freshman Class and master of ceremonies.

The Deering High School orchestra played several selections. Following the musical program Clarence McIntire discussed, "What is Education." Virginia Logan, accompanied by Barbara Hammond was heard in a solo, "Birds at Eventide." "What We May Give to Deering" was the subject of a speech given by Richard Mayberry; and, in contrast, Marylee Riggs talked on "What Deering Gives to Us." Other features of the program included a violin solo by John Lord accompanied by Reginald Howe; "Does It Pay to Study," a speech by Neil Clark; a Hungarian costume dance by Anna and Marion Korda, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Korda; and a talk, "Do Activities Pay?" by Rhoda Tolford.

A reception followed, when the pupils presented their parents to Principal and Mrs. Wing and members of the faculty. Dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

DANCING IN THE GYMNASIUM

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 2, 1937

CADETS

The major event of the year for any cadet is the Cadet Ball which because of the growth of the corps was held in the Exposition Building in 1937. For the first time since its organization, Deering's crack squad, the "Minute Men," met another special squad, the "Queen's Men," of Portland High.

In the regular competition of the three Deering High companies against the three from Portland High, Company F of Deering won the silver cup for being the best company on the floor, and Irving Stanton and Harold Shaw were selected for individual honors.

The colorful picture of the three large Deering Companies was an inspiring one. Company A, commanded by Captain Harold Shaw, Company D, commanded by Captain Raymond Webster, and Company F, commanded by Captain Thomas Sheehy, met well trained opponents in Companies B, C, and E of Portland. Company F of Deering showed greater efficiency in drill than any other company on the floor, and to them went the honor of receiving the impressive silver cup donated by the Ralph D. Caldwell Legion Post for the best company in the two schools. From the Deering corps Irving Stanton had the signal distinction of being awarded the medal given by the Daughters of the American Revolution to the best non-commissioned officer. Captain Harold Shaw won the medal as the best commissioned officer among the Deering cadets. Portland High was awarded a silver cup, an honor achieved by the best battalion at the ball.

Another highlight of the evening was the drill of the Deering "Minute Men." The guests and the congregated forces of the two schools applauded the intricate drill of the special squad. Their new purple, white, and red uniforms added swank to their perfected drill. In the "Minute Men" drill squad this year are Captains Thomas Sheehy, Raymond S. Webster, George Brume, and Herbert Meyers; Lieutenant Paul Galentine; Sergeants Kenneth Harris, George Shackleton, Irving Stanton; and Sergeant-Major Charles Rounds. The "Minute Men" owe much of their success to Lieutenant Paul Morrill of the Reserve, who has given freely of his time and energy in training them.

DEBATING

Congratulations to our Deering Debating Club! The Deering forensic team won the Bowdoin Debating League this year, the first team in several years to accomplish this achievement. The school is becoming debate-conscious as the teams prove their worth; this year over a hundred debaters, judges, and cadets visited Deering for the Southwestern Maine Debating Tournament. The Deering team was only eliminated from the Bates Debating League by Lincoln School, after scoring a three to nothing victory over the Rockland high team.

Early in the year preparation of the question for the Bowdoin League began. Norma Lewis and Margaret Stone, chosen to represent Deering, went to Bowdoin on December fifth to debate the question, Resolved: "That this house approves the old age pension provisions of the Social Security Act." Deering won first place, definitely establishing their claim to the championship of the Bowdoin Debating League. Miss Stone, bringing an additional honor to Deering, was judged the best speaker at the debate.

In working for the preliminaries of the Bates League, practice debates were held with South Portland, Edward Little, Lewiston High, Leavitt Academy, and the Bowdoin College Freshmen. At Deering in the actual Bates League Debate, Miss Phyllis McCann and Miss Margaret Stone on the affirmative debated with Rockland High on the subject, Resolved: "That all electric utilities should be governmentally owned and operated." The Deering team defeated Rockland by a three to nothing decision. Miss McCann was voted the best speaker. Deering was eliminated from the Bates League when the negative team lost to Lincoln by one point. Norma Lewis and Philip Litman represented Deering.

The Southwestern Maine Debating Tournament was held at Deering this year. This is a debating contest to try the younger debaters, and to help select the varsity teams. Deering entered four groups. The halls of Deering were crowded with the guests of the Debating Club. Every classroom was filled. The next year's debating team will have to work hard and well to equal the work done by this year's team.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

No lucky fluke brought about Deering High School's fourth unbeaten girls basketball team. Few teams could succeed in maintaining a record of four unbeaten years; but Deering has done even better. Coach Anne McKechnie, assisted by Miss Lilla Andrew, has formed a team that has given proof of their ability by its enthusiasm and hard work. The girls have responded to their coaches' leadership by showing good playing and good sportsmanship at all times.

The opening game was played against the alumnae team. A new Deering team, with only three veterans, proved it's worth by outplaying the former stars. The final trial against invaders came in the game against Westbrook, as the Purple team rode over its opponents at a score of 36 to 15. Encouraged and filled with a desire to chalk up new victories for their school, they trounced their old rival South Portland, 47 to 18. In the last half of the Cony game, the Cony team began cutting our long lead with wild and lucky pot-shots. The Deering Purple showed its strength in a nip-and-tuck fourth quarter, saving the day and the perfect record by a lead of four points. Deering went on to defeat Morse, Cony, South Portland, Westbrook, and then Morse again in quick succession.

The opponents of these six basketball players have not been easy to conquer. The Deering team has won games against all the finest players in the state by co-ordination, accuracy, strong playing and hard practice. Coaches McKechnie and Andrew have built one of Deering's finest teams with a nucleus of only three veterans. The task was not easy, but from the material at hand a team was formed whose record speaks for itself.

The success of next year's team is under the able ability of Betty Timberlake, and we are sure that the same merits will reward the coming team with honor as this year's team has obtained under the guidance of Captain Virginia Percy. May the long line of undefeated girls' basketball teams never be broken.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

"Champions of Western Maine and one of the finest boys' teams ever to represent Deering" characterizes the 1937 Cottrell-coached club. The season's record of eleven victories and three losses, tells only part of the story, for the boys starting the season with untried material developed into a highly competitive outfit, coming back from early season defeat to be the first Deering team to gain the Western Maine Championship in the history of the School.

Although Deering suffered an early defeat at the hands of Portland, they soon struck their pace, as in quick succession Thornton, South Portland, Westbrook, and Edward Little fell before their superior type of play. Hopes for revenge in return engagements suffered severe reverses as Deering developed into a smoother working outfit. South Portland was the chief threat to our victory march as the close score of 32 to 31 proves. At the half, the Deering team was six points behind a victory-flushed South Portland five. This was the crucial game of the season when a break in the moral of the team would have been followed by defeat. Under severe strain and great excitement such as might have cracked a weaker team, the Deering men rallied to force the hopeful South Portland five in to an overtime period. With defeat still staring our boys in the face, and frantic hundreds yelling themselves hoarse, Geer sunk the winning basket.

Portland received a stunning blow when Deering again played them. The Blue Boys' successful season was temporarily halted as Deering fought them to the finish in one of the closest battles of the season.

Following this game, which closed the schedule, came the greatest test, the Western Maine Tournament. Deering defeated Camden in a preliminary game, qualifying for the semi-finals. The Cheverus team was defeated only after a closely contested game. The final score of 21 to 17 was one more of a long line of winning counts to be added to the team's credit.

Again Deering was to have the chance to prove that it could defeat a Portland five. Both teams in the finals were evenly matched, and it was doubtful from the opening quarter to the last gunshot who would be the winner. They fought to a stand-still as first Portland and then Deering forged ahead. This evenly matched play continued throughout the game. At the half, the score was Deering 9, Portland 8. The nerve-racking tension during the entire second half held the spectators in suspense. In the last minute of play, Sawyer received the ball, saw no one to pass to, calmly flipped a one-handed shot through the basket. The Deering team was the newly crowned 1937 champion of Western Maine. By this accomplishment Deering gained a double victory, for they had shown their superiority over a highly-rated Portland five.

As a result of the Western Maine Tournament, Deering played the winners of the Eastern Maine Conference for the State Championship. Deering, leading at the half, lost to Winslow by a margin of two points, this 16 to 14 battle thus closing one of the most brilliant basketball seasons in the annals of Deering.

CROSS COUNTRY

In a shower that boded ill for cross country men, Deering's runners surged onward over hill and dale to take first place in the State Meet. Against stiff competition furnished by over one hundred husky runners from all parts of the state, the Deering Cross Country men steadily gained over their enterprising rivals and captured the meet with 43 points, against their nearest threat Lincoln Academy, with 60 points.

The Deering men placed third in the New England Interscholastic Meet at Providence, chiefly because of the great running ability of the Deering team. Against stronger and more experienced schools, the Deering team, nevertheless, showed remarkable spirit and gameness. Only a stubborn determination and a will-to-win allowed the Deering tracksters to bring home more honors to the school. The glory of Portland's first place victory in the Gorham Normal School Meet was erased and supplanted by a greater victory when Portland was able to gain only thirteenth place in the New England Meet.

Although the Bowdoin Freshmen displayed too much strength for the Deering men, the Deering track team won individual honors as "Bob" Sherwood placed first in 18 minutes, 53 seconds, and "Bud" Watts crossed the tape a close second. Bowdoin's captain and star miler lost out to greater stamina and placed third. Deering lost the meet to the Bowdoin men only by the small margin of six points, the final score being 26 to 32.

The 1937 Deering track cluster owes its success to those boys who have given their best against all opponents, and who have unselfishly given their time and efforts to a coach who has repeatedly turned out winning teams for Deering. Coach Harvell has for years fashioned and moulded boys, and they have left Deering to become names in news. Past instances are too numerous to mention, and this year is no exception as milers, weight throwers, hurdlers, and dash men have been woven into the historic pattern that forms the emblazoned history of Deering. Coach Harvell has this year produced cross-country men that have competed successfully against college freshmen and out-of-state high schools, and seldom have his men been beaten.

This year "Bob" Sherwood has been outstanding in his field, and "Bud" Watts has been his close rival. From material at hand Coach "Buck" Harvell has wielded a group of boys working as one strong unit. With this unit, he forged a definite place for Deering in track annals. Far and wide the fame of his teams have spread, and his boys have responded to his training by winning. The State Meet and the New England Meet proved conclusively that Deering is a leader among cross-country teams. This year has seen the close of an unusually successful cross-country season, one long to be remembered in the track records of Deering.

INDOOR TRACK

The Indoor Track season has closed with the most thrilling climax for years. Against stiff competition, the Deering team entered the Four-Cornered Meet with the odds against them. However, nothing daunted, the Deering men forged ahead with every driving bit of energy at their command. And as Sherman, Sherwood, Watts, Andrew, Gammon, Merrill, and Fuller piled up an amazing score, it seemed as if Deering was slated for the coveted honor; but fate was against us, for in spite of the might and strength of the Deering men, we lost the meet by one point.

No team has ever worked harder than this year's team. Records have tumbled and endurance been strained to the utmost. The Deering runners nearly defeated the Bates Freshmen, and in most events, they outshone the college men. For the first time in eleven years, the Deering men came within eight points of defeating South Portland; and in the Four Cornered Meet, they disasterously defeated South Portland.

Repeatedly, the surging, driving energy, and powerful, striding inroads into the opponents pomposity have threatened to topple crowns already weakened. In the Four Cornered Meet, a Deering team outshone all others; and it was only by the merest chance that we lost. The crowd yelled itself hoarse as the galloping purple hoard ran wild over the track, and the high jumpers and weight hurlers thundered over all attempts at competition.

Thus closed the season, and with it go some of the best stars of Deering.

OUTDOOR TRACK

At the time of writing this article, outdoor track has yet to be completed, but the 1937 Outdoor Track team has all the earmarks of being the most successful for many years. The first meet of the season was between Deering and the University of Maine freshmen. In spite of Maine's heavier and faster team, our boys amassed the highest aggregate of points ever scored against the collegians.

When the Deering team tangled with Thornton and South Portland in the Three-Cornered Meet, at the Expo., Deering completely swamped its opponents when its complement of weight hurlers, dash men, and hurdlers won one event after another to compile the staggering score of 82 points against 26 for our nearest rival, Portland.

In the New Hampshire Interscholastic Meet, Deering placed first among the New England teams. Although New York state teams from Mount Pleasant and Nutt Terrace High Schools, proved too strong for the Deering men, nevertheless, we gained sweet consolation in the fact that we placed third well ahead of all other New England teams.

With such an auspicious beginning, there is certainly a wonderful season ahead of the team. Last year, the Deering team placed only a few points behind the Rumford men who became state champions. This year Deering has defeated Rumford in the New England Interscholastics, and along with this, every Maine team that entered the meet. It is thus easy to see that the Deering team has promising chances of becoming State Champions.

FOOTBALL

Rising far above, and outshining the other games of the football season was the sparkling first season game with Portland. Games between the two schools always draw large crowds, and this game was no exception as thousands watched the apparently defeated Deering team clamber back to tie the score with only breath-taking seconds left. With cool courage, the Deering team fought against a victory-flushed Portland eleven, and as play after play splashed against the blue line and the crazed stands rocked, the Deering team made its determined fight. Then suddenly a pass from Sawyer nestled into Morris's arms, and he placed 34 yards between himself and the line of scrimmage before he was brought down. With perfect calmness and nerveless skill, the Deering team slowly forced their rivals back. As they rested for breathless moments, the silence of the stands wrapped the field in shrieking quiet, and then a deafening roar shattered the stillness as "Dick" Gordon broke the Portland line asunder and went over for a touchdown. In the short time remaining, suspense seemed endless. Would Deering capture that much-needed point to tie the score? The fans did not have long to wait, for again that driving back, "Dick" Gordon, laid low the Portland team. The score was tied, a glorious victory for a fighting Deering team.

In the annual Thanksgiving Day classic however, Deering was defeated in a terrific battle. On a field reeking with mud and water, the players slithered and slid as they fought to gain yardage. Portland skidded over for a touchdown after recovering a fumbled punt, and the cold-husked voices of the Portland fans told of a blue victory.

As South Portland threatened our hopes in the first half of a thrilling game, Deering's king pin and star full back crashed into the red line, broke through, shook off the men who clung to him, and charged down the field for 44 yards with the Caper pack yapping at his heels. From the twenty yard line to the touchdown, the red line was unmercifully battered as charge after charge split the South Portland defense in twain. Unable to withstand the terrific onslaught, the Capers grudgingly gave ground. The purple hoard, taking advantage of their thrusts, rolled in a wave over the line to score the winning touchdown.

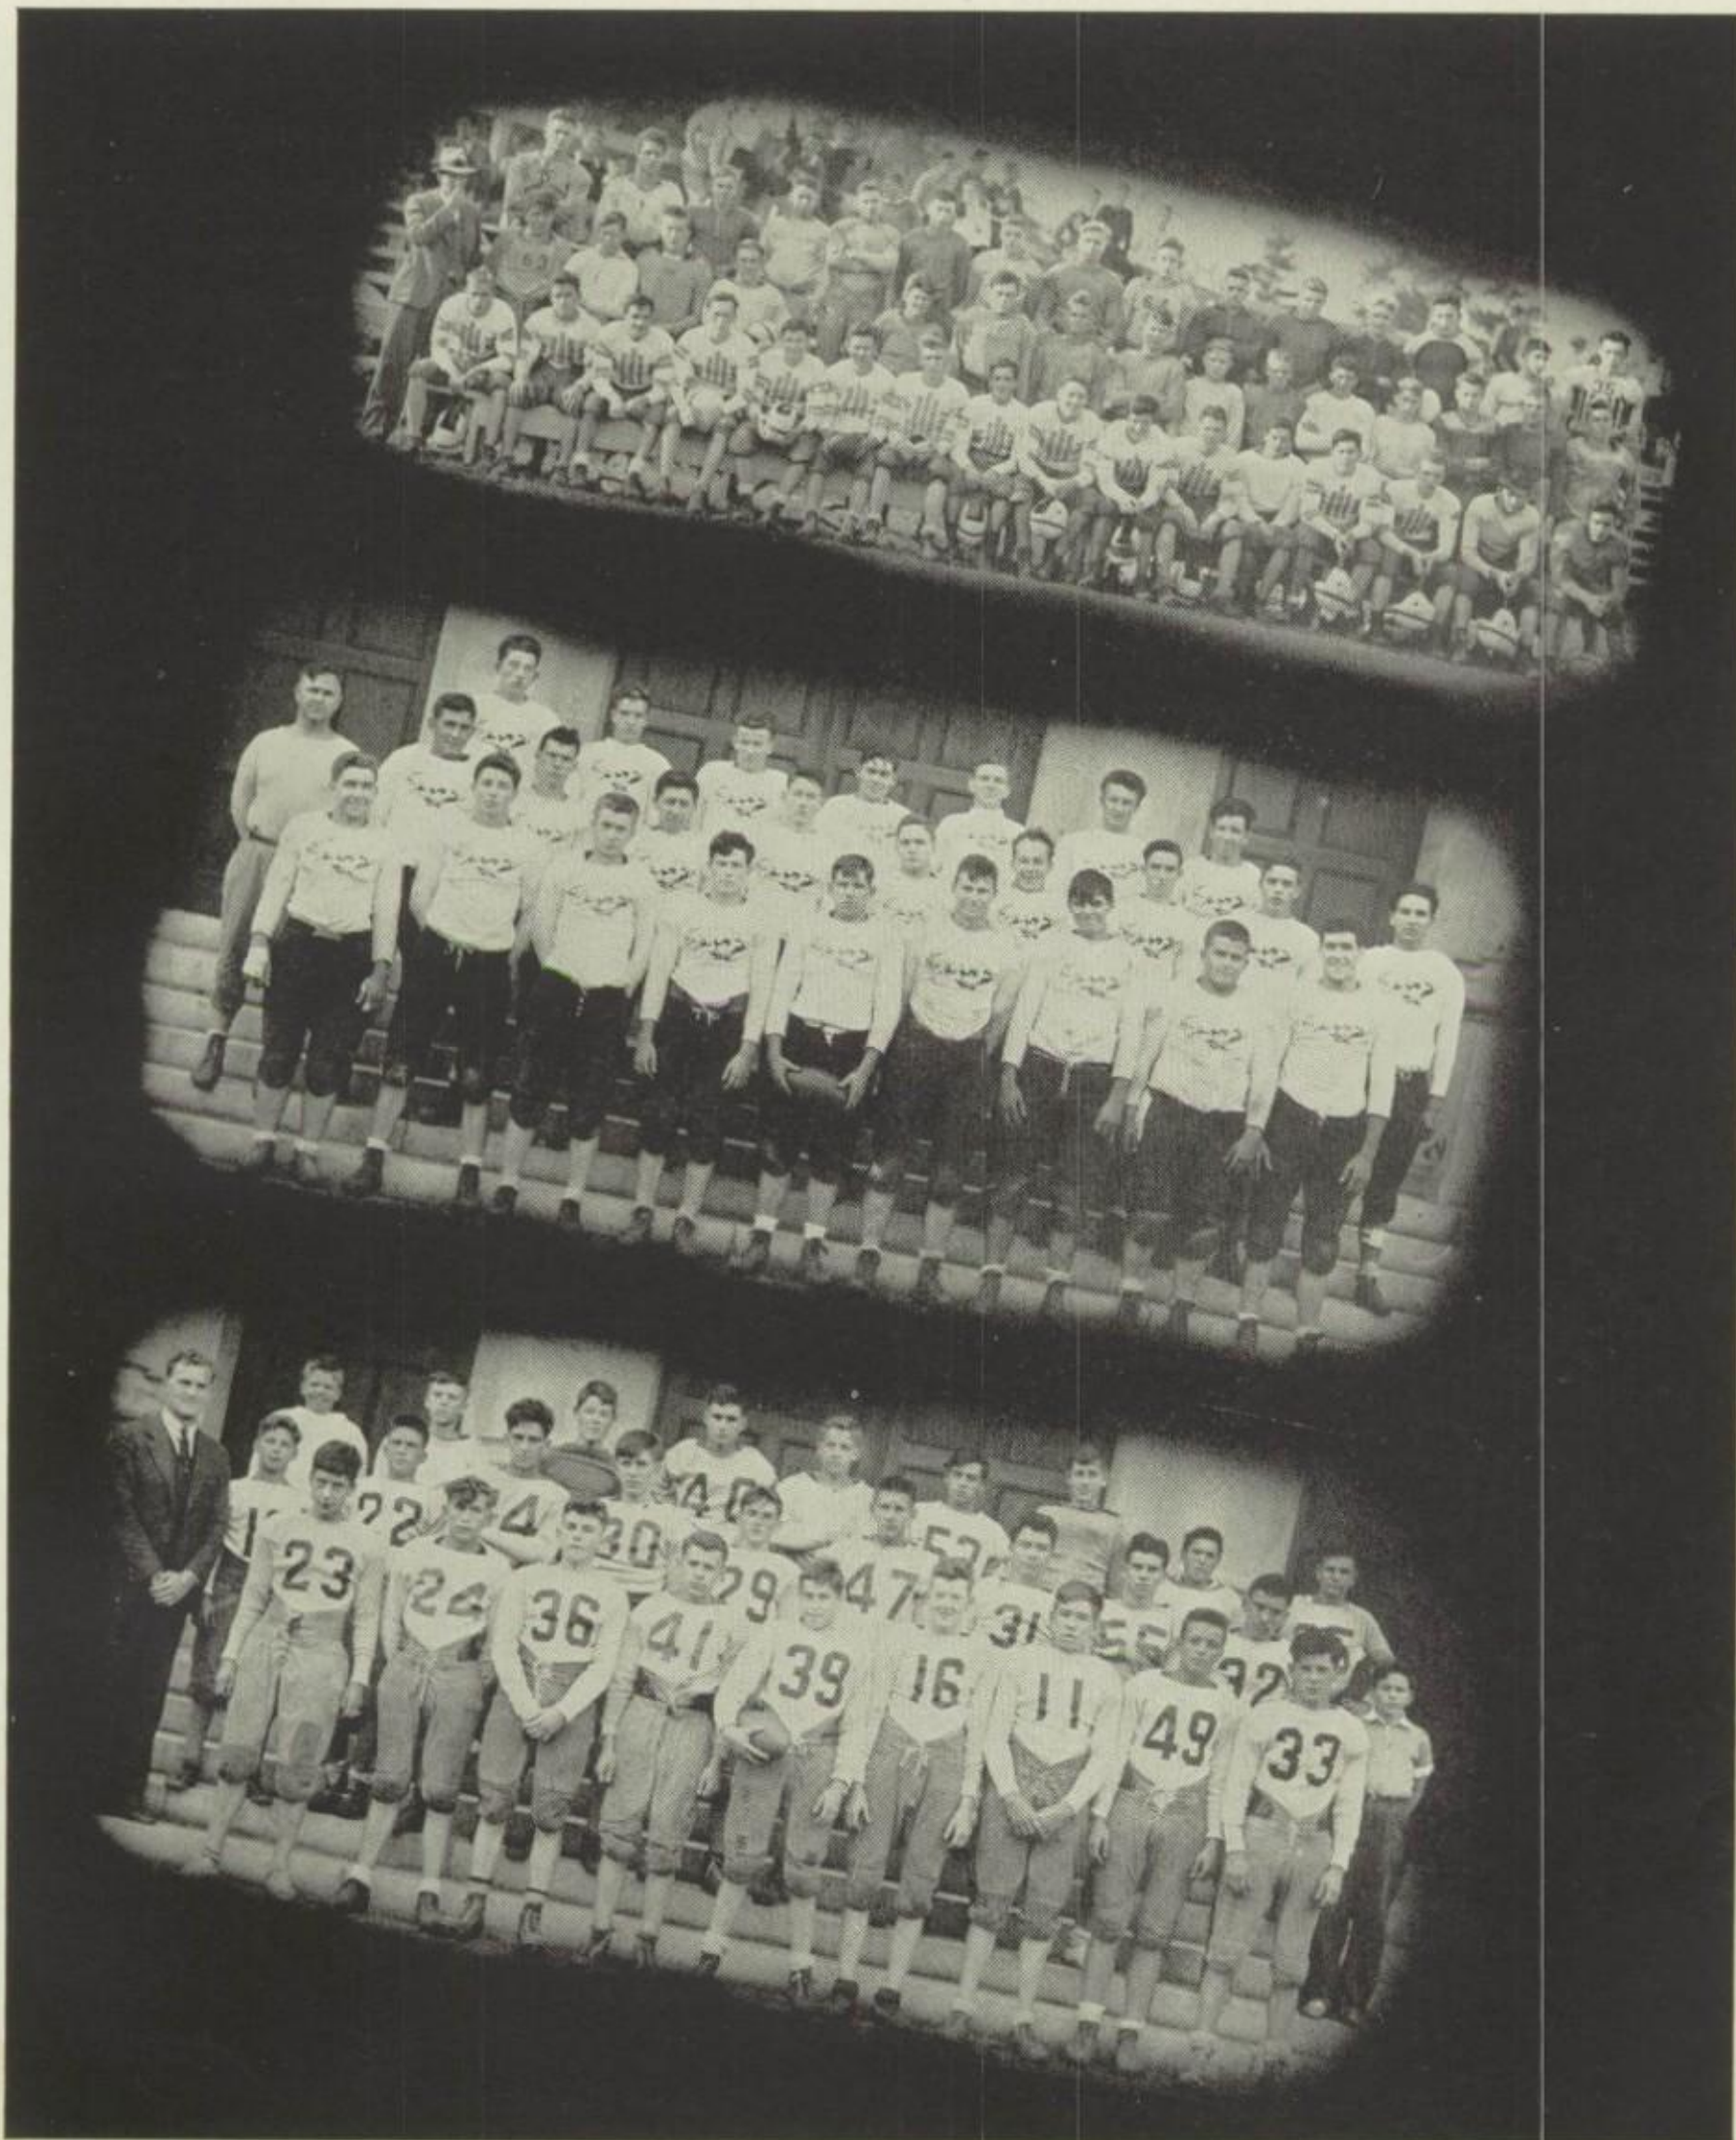

In the fourth quarter, the Deering team with "Matt" Flaherty as the driving force opened the throttle of their delayed scoring machine to roar over the line twice to score against a weaker but obstinate Biddeford team. Once again, a victorious Deering eleven brought home the laurels.

The futile efforts of a demoralized Brunswick team against a tough Deering eleven resulted in disaster, as the weaker team was mowed down before the sharp edge of Deering's attacks. For three touchdowns, Morris, Sawyer, and Gordon romped over the Brunswick men until the scoring was stopped by placing Deering substitutes in for the regular men.

Once again, the Deering juggernaut crushed the vantage of hope from Morse as hopelessly they attempted to stem the frightful wave of victory that rose threateningly above them. With dogged determination the Morse unit stubbornly gave ground as the Deering team thundered and pounded the Morse line as though it were clay. Then came the weakening under the deluge, for as first Sawyer and then Brooks broke through, the Morse defense snapped to admit the flood of Deering's success.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

Coming back from an early season's defeat by a Portland High Eleven, the Deering girls' hockey team coached by Miss Lilla Andrew showed real fighting spirit by topping its in-town rival 2 to 1 in a stubbornly fought battle, not decided until the final whistle blew. Playing a schedule of four games, the Deering girls claimed one win and one tie as their record in a season that found Deering with an improved team over that of last year.

Deering's pet epidemic, Portland, won the first game with two goals to Deering's one. The contest proved little as to the real merits of the two elevens. Deering scored the first goal, but a not-to-be-beaten Portland team soon overcame the handicap, eking out a 2 to 1 victory.

As Deering met Bridgton amid a shower of clubs, it seemed as if our eleven might fall to a stronger team. Showing sterling playing ability, the Deering girls scored the decisive goal in the last half of an exciting game.

Although Cony High defeated the Deering lassies, this was by no means a sad end to a successful hockey season, for the girls had triumphed over Portland and tied Bridgton.

SWIMMING

This year has seen the close of the season of one of the hardest teams to be dunked in Deering. Although the swimming team was hard hit by ineligibility and lack of veterans, the Deering cork continually bobbed up again in the choppy currents of defeat to be an obstacle and threat to the other swimming teams. Considering the difficulties that beset the watery path of the team, it is a remarkable feat that they placed fourth in the State Meet. With their indomitable courage and perseverance, the Deering tankers pulled through with several wins; and they also gave some surprisingly stiff resistance to several schools who supposed the Deering team weak.

Portland defeated us in a hollow victory, for it was only by a very few points that her stronger and more experienced team was able to nose the Deering mermen from their place. It seemed that the bulldog grip of Portland had been borrowed by a Deering team as the purple propellers plowed their pursuing path hard on the heels of the forced Portland mermen.

The most exciting meet of the season was the one between Deering and Hebron as the two teams plowed back and forth. For a long time the outcome was doubtful until the Deering cluster found their strong winning points in the 200 yard relay.

Next year's team will have some able men, and to the veterans is due the esteem and high standing of the Deering swimming team.

CHEERLEADERS

The school and student body owe much to the vocal enthusiasts who have aroused the fans at all athletic events. These husky voiced lads have not only furnished us with enthusiasm, but have filled the on-lookers with awe at their gymnastic ability.

For nine months the cheerleaders of Deering have traveled far and wide throughout Maine, supporting school teams. These seven boys have journeyed through rain, snow, sleet, and sunshine to cheer Deering men on to victory. At rallies, games, dances, and carnivals these jumping jacks and their insuppressible animation have furnished enjoyment to all.

They have contrived numerous antics to amuse the crowd. Possibly their most successful innovation is the flip-flop cheer. Their proud boast is that the flip never flopped, even on the wet field of the Deering-Portland football game.

BOYS' TENNIS

First Deering team to gain the Southwestern Maine Interscholastic Boys' Tennis Championship, the D. H. S. doubles teams composed of "Bob" Anthoine and "Dick" Chase accomplished what many another team of the past has attempted, when they defeated the Portland High racqueteers in a sizzling three-set final on the excellent day courts of the Portland Country Club.

Additional honors came to Deering the following Saturday when Anthoine won new laurels in capturing the coveted Southwestern Maine Singles title. Playing a superior brand of tennis which left his opponents helpless against his fast-breaking attack, Anthoine swept through the entire tournament with a loss of but eleven games in straight two-set victories.

In a tournament upset in the first round Shulman of Portland defeated Chase of Deering in a three-hour battle 6-3, 13-15, 7-5.

The 1937 season was featured by the organization of a Junior Varsity team under the capable direction of Johnny Stevens, D.H.S., '36. A regular schedule of matches was played with other freshman and sophomore teams and much experience gained by the new men.

1937 letter-winners were: Capt. "Dick" Chase, Capt-elect "Bob" Anthoine, "Dick" Swift, "Dick" Pye, "Phil" Witman, "Joe" O'Neil, Gerard Lewis.

Class numerals were awarded to Kilpatrick, Weston, Rogers, Marble, Miller, Pennell, Casey, Johnson, and Lewis.

Semi-finals, Herman defeated Abbott, 8-6, 3-6, 7-5; Anthoine defeated Ireland, 6-3, 6-2; Finals: Anthoine defeated Herman, 6-0, 6-0.

GOLF TEAM

The Deering golf team this year enjoyed its most successful season, winning eight of nine matches played and seems headed for State Championship honors. The lone defeat to mar this outstanding record was received at the hands of Portland High, but this loss was avenged later in the season as the Blue was turned back for its first defeat in seven years. The Purple defeated Brunswick once, Thornton, South Portland, and Sanford twice, and split even in two Portland matches. Besides compiling a fine record in match play, the team opened the season by copping the Paul Revere Cup in a Patriots' Day tournament at Brunswick.

The first team is composed of Gene Germain and Rod Steele, co-captains, Mort Irving and Henry Payson. Neither Irving nor Payson has been defeated in nine schoolboy matches this year. Coach Frank Stack will lose by graduation Germain, Steele, and Irving of the regular four. Returning will be Payson around whom Stack will build next year's team. The present team has been ably managed by Chet Garland.

For next year's team three boys must be found to supplement Payson's strong play. On this year's second team were Phil McCracken, Stanley Plummer, Vin Mulroy, Dick Gordon, Jimmy Maxfield, and Dave Mahar. Mulroy is graduating, but Coach Stack still has five boys who, under his able direction, are becoming fine golfers.

BASE BALL

Once again a Deering team wonders what the future may bring? On June 3rd Deering stands tied for first place in the Telegram League but the tide of battle may yet change, and the Deering baseball team may bring home another trophy for the venerable walls of Deering.

Under a new coach, who has shown his ability to turn out ball players, the Deering nine has oiled up its guns and fired broadside after broadside at their opponents to total the score of nine games won and three lost. The feeling and tension is now great, and either a win or a defeat may decide who will capture the pennant of the Telegram League.

When the battling nine first came to bat against a strong Portland club, the Deering men were defeated by only a small margin as the evenly matched teams gave run for run. Then the rumbling machine of Deering swung into it's ponderous stride, which slowed down for only insurmountable obstacles. With full steam up, the rolling landslide covered all but a few teams with the debris of their own hopes as first one school after another fell prey to the irresistible strength and playing ability of the Deering team. The Deering threat plowed under Cheverus, Sanford, South Portland, Westbrook, and Biddeford, sowing the seed of victory and watching the fruit of their labors sprout into full flowering victory.

With such men as Geer who steals every base in sight, Lovejoy who smacks anything put across the plate, Oug who pulls seemingly impossible features, Harvey and Bowler throwing balls on every side of the hapless batter, Keating and McDonough vying with each other on the number of flys they can catch, and Robinson and Quint knocking the ears off all opponents, is it any wonder that the Deering team has become a serious threat to the pennant?

Deering had little trouble in taking over Westbrook and Biddeford, as a dizzy complement of hits and runs dazzled the two schools. Then suddenly, the Deering juggernaut was laid up for repairs as the team struck unsuspected difficulties in the form of Sanford. The Sanford men pricked the bubble of Deering's confidence ever so slightly, for they defeated us by only one run. However, the elastic constitution of the Deering nine snapped back to hit Biddeford and Cheverus for two more victories.

Then a crack in Deering's hopes appeared as we suffered a set-back at the hands of a fine Thornton team that defeated us to the score of eleven to three. Healing balm soothed the wound, however, as our team defeated our arch enemy, Portland, the next day in one of the most closely contested games of the baseball season. On this game hinged the hope of tying for first place or the despair of taking a second place in the Telegram League. The Deering nine responded by defeating the Portland team eleven to ten, the winning tally coming in the tenth inning.

This is the record of the season at the time of writing, and it is one to be proud of. We sincerely wish that we could record herein the rest of the season, for we are sure that the Deering team will perform admirably.
